Bay Bridge hotel by Hotel G is re-launching in August after extensive renovations to target the new generation of millennial travellers looking for stylish yet affordable accommodation.

Bay Bridge's 436 rooms are spacious and bright with contemporary design, some featuring outdoor terraces and kitchenettes. The hotel offers views of the South China Sea, and is equipped with recreational facilities including an outdoor pool, saunas, spa baths, and a fitness centre to offer guests an 'urban escape'.

Located in Tsuen Wan, the hotel has easy access to public transport networks and is in close proximity to the airport, Hong Kong's business districts, and country parks.

"This is a new value-for-money concept for business and leisure travelers, seeking short or long stays," says Peter Pfister, general manager of the Bay Bridge. "There is nothing else like it in the area ... a haven of tranquility and relaxation overlooking the South China Sea, yet within 30 minutes of just about everywhere in Hong Kong."

With scheduled openings in Shenzhen, Suzhou and Beijing next year, Hotel G continues to expand its portfolio, which includes Pullman Bangkok Hotel G, Pullman Pattaya Hotel G, Hotel G San Francisco and Residence G Hong Kong.

Its management portfolio includes iconic properties such as the Hollywood Roosevelt in Los Angeles and The Strand in Yangon.

Bay Bridge Hotel & Serviced Apartment by Hotel G is at 123 Castle Peak Road, Yau Kom Tau, Tsuen Wan, Hong Kong.
